CRIMINAL DOCKET NEARLY CLEARED

Village is the guest of relatives in Only a few Cases Remain to be Disposed of-Hennes and Pounch Plead Guilty-Armstrong Found Guilty but Not Sentenced.

There are but a few cases remaining on the docket of the criminal superior court, fifteen of them having been disposed of this week in various ways. There remain but six of the cases which were on the assigned list, and three of those are continued cases.

When the court opened on Friday morning State Attorney Hull resumed his cross examination of Sidney Armstrong, and the man told of getting lunch for Alice Smith in Putnam and again in Worcester the day they left here. He left her in a restaurant there, telling her he was going out to hunt up a drink. He got one and met a friend whom he brought back. The friend didn't become fascinated by Alice Smith, and they again left, Armstrong telling her he would be back in fifteen minutes, otherwise he would see her there in the morning. He didn't return until morning and then a waiter said the Smith woman had gone to New Haven.

Sadie Marsh testified that Sidney Armstrong and Alice Smith were at her house and left together.

James W. Armstrong testified that he saw the accused in Worcester. The record of Alice Smith's conviction in the city court because of her connection with the theft was given by City Court Clerk Tibbits. That concluded the testimony and the arguments were made by Attorney Hall, Babcock and Hill. Starting at 10.55c. Judge Reed charged the jury and they were out from 2.31 until 3 o'clock, when they returned with a verdict of guilty of larceny of $54.

GOING TO ITALY FROM NORWICH HOSPITAL Charles White of Groton Taken to New York-Is Much Improved and Will Go to His Birthplace.

On Friday evening State Policeman

On Friday evening State Policeman Rudd of New London came to the Norwich State hospital and accompanied Charles D. White of Groton, who was released from the institution then, to New London, taking the boat for New York. Today he will be placed aboard a steamship bound for Italy and start on his way to his birthplace. He goes without expense to the town or state and was released on the understanding that he return to Italy.

White was convicted of committing abortion on Mary Metzermacher several years ago in Groton. He was sentenced to a long term in the state prison at Wethersfield. Following the serving of his sentence several months ago White returned to Groton and since then exhibited strong symptoms he displayed a long time ago. He repeatedly made threats against residents of the town and finally a commission was appointed, consisting of New London physicians, to examine him mentally. The examination was made and White was committed to the hospital. Since being at the hospital he has shown much improvement, states Dr. Pollock, and is very much better than he was.

Some time ago the town furnished. much better than he was.
Some time ago the town furnished
White with funds to return to Italy, but instead of going he spent the money. This time he will be conveyed aboard a foreign-bound steamer, so that he will be compelled to make the passage. White labors under the illusion that he was unjustly incarcerated and that he has a good chance of a suit against the town of Groton and has several times declared that he and has several times declared that he ages.
